Berlin and throughout other countries of Europe. Miss Munchhoff is pleased at the good fortune of the club in engaging him and says that a treat is in store for the club members next Tuesday.

The program which Mr. Reimers will present is especially attractive. It consists of four groups. The first will contain an old Italian aria, "Amarilia" by Casini, "Spring" by Carey and two quaint old English songs. A group of German songs will follow containing the attractive Mendelssohn number "Am Fingert des Georgens," "Wohin" by Schubert and other selections by Schubert and Sommer. Two selections from the pen of Henry Purcell will be followed by "La Chere Maitresse" by Dalcroze, and an old German song, "Der Jaser." The fourth group is made up entirely of international folk songs, numbers being chosen from old French, Russian, Swiss, English and German literature.

The ninth annual concert by the Swedish Singing society "Norden" and assisted by the Ladies' Singing society "Linnea" and Joel Moosburg, baritone, of Chicago, and Miss Helen Anderson, soprano, will be given at the Swedish Auditorium, Sixteenth and Chicago streets, Thursday evening, February 3, 1916, at 8 o'clock. John S. Helgren, director, and Miss Margaret Liljeström, accompanist. Beside many choral numbers in the Swedish language there will be also choral numbers in English and Italian. Mr. Moosburg will sing the "Prologue" from "I Pagliacci," Leoncavallo, and a group of Swedish songs, presenting two numbers with the assistance of the society "Norden." Miss Helen Anderson will sing "The Spring Has Come" by White, and the Ladies' Society Linnea will be heard in ladies' choruses as well as in co-operation with the society "Norden." Mr. Helgren is well known as a serious and efficient conductor. The object of this concert is to raise funds for the entertainment of the convention of Swedish singing societies which will be heard here next year.

Musical Notes.

The music class in piano, voice and violin of St. Berchman's academy gave a student's concert, chiefly from the works of Schumann, Schubert and Liszt, on Friday, January 28, at 2:30 p. m. Those taking part were Rita McVeigh, Iva Turner, Kathleen McCrann, Laverne pupils and giving up a great deal of time, beside the evening of the entertainment, and the expense and trouble of reaching the places beside the evening of the entertainment. Under the present system it simply puts Mr. Graff, Mr. English and Miss Enser under personal obligations to the teachers and pupils who co-operate. If the Board of Education would give outside credit for music study in the high school, possibly a great amount of the talent required for these entertainments could be gained from the music class which would thus be started in the school itself and would, to a great extent, relieve these three representatives from what cannot but be to any right-minded persons a rather embarrassing position.

Frances Nash and George Hamlin will be heard in joint recital at the Boyd theater this afternoon at 4 o'clock and the program is scheduled to start promptly. Miss Nash played in Minneapolis with the Symphony orchestra last Sunday and achieved a success of which a much older artist might well be proud. From the column of Dr. Caryl B. Storrs in the Tribune, January 24, 1916, "The Mary Pickford was Frances Nash, a girlishly beautiful pianist of whom little has been heard in this country, where her career is but just beginning. It is a pleasure to prophesy the triumphant continuance of a career so auspiciously opened. Miss Nash is an artist to her finger-tips and very graceful and nimble finger-tips they are, driven by a mind that knows just what ought to
